

HUMAN FLIES ON CITY HALL TOWER—U. S. TROOPS IN CAMP AT HOME AND IN FRANCE

PERSHING'S MEN ARE HEADED FOR THE TRENCHES

"Somewhere in France" the tramp, tramp, tramp of the United States marines is rhythmically marking the march of those "soldiers of the sea" to further paths of glory ashore.

THE MARTIAL LION IN THE ABODE OF THE PEACEFUL LAMB
George Lawson (left), formerly of the EVENING LEDGER, and Thomas E. Stewart, of the Ambulance Corps, quartered in a sheep pen on the Allentown Fair grounds.

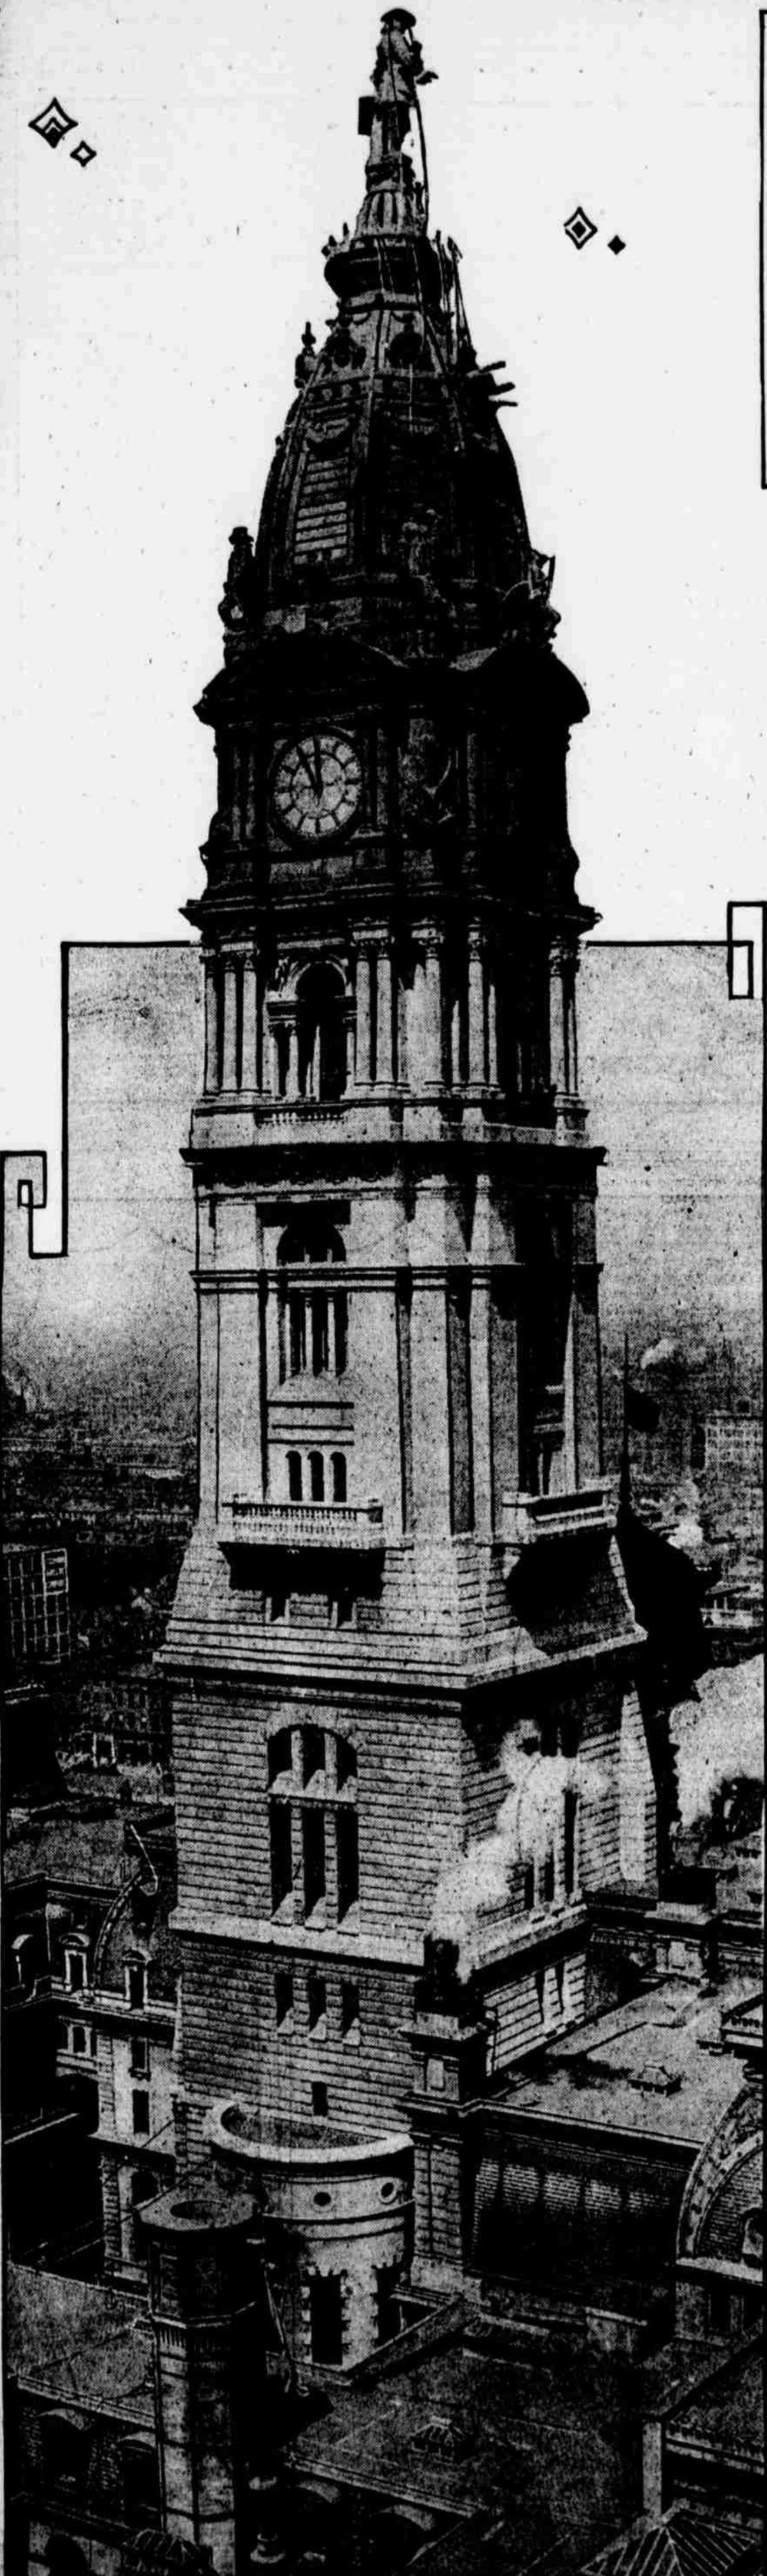

ACCLAIMED AS THE BOVINE QUEEN OF THE CHESTER COUNTY FAIR
Blue ribbon winner in the Holstein stock class, representing the pride of Maple Shade Farm, exhibited by M. L. Jones.

WINS SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIP OF CITY POOL
Benjamin Dragonette carries off the season's honors at the municipal bathhouse, Twelfth and Reed streets.

SAMMEE SHOWS THE POILU WHAT HE MEANS TO DO TO THE BOCHE WHEN HE MEETS HIM
One of the infantrymen with the expeditionary force in France explaining the working of the American army rifle to an interested audience of French instructors.

BILLY PENN IS STRONGLY SUGGESTIVE OF GULLIVER IN LILLIPUT
Firmly artisans dangling from ropes use the statue of the founder as a support for the scaffolding on which they pursue their perilous calling.